

The Future of Food Chain Safety

conference

Budapest, 15. 10. 2013.

AGENDA

10:15 Welcome speech

10:30 Plenary session: Introduction to the Food-chain Safety Strategy – Lajos Bognár, deputy state secretariat, Ministry of Rural Development

11:00 – 13:00 International panorama

11:00 Krzysztof Jazdzewski – deputy CVO, Poland: The development of food safety supervision and competences shared in this sector in Poland.

11:25 Per S. Henriksen – CVO, Denmark: Food safety in Denmark – tasks and challenges

11:50 Riita Heinonen – CVO, Finland: Working together the food chain – Finland's experiences

12:15 Michael Winter - Bundesministerium für Ernährung, Landwirtschaft und Verbraucherschutz, Germany – Food Safety – Germany's approach to reach that goal

12:45 Ladislav Miko – Deputy Director General for the Food Chain, DG SANCO, European Commission

14:00 – 16:00 Sessions – 4 topics, 4 locations

1. Session – Meals and doubts: food chain safety in primary schools

14:00 – 14:05 Introduction – Enikő Varga Ilauskyné – deputy director, Sándor Bródy secondary school

14:05 – 14:20 Food chain safety in the National Education Scheme – József Kaposi – director-general, Hungarian Institute for Educational Research and Development

14:20 – 15:00 Food chain safety knowledge – Gyula Kasza - assistant professor, Corvinus University of Budapest, Faculty of Food Science

15:55 – 16:00 Summary - Enikő Varga Ilauskyné – deputy director, Sándor Bródy secondary school

2. Session – Our life and our food: Veterinarian and medical challenges of food chain safety, the ways of future

Opening: Márton Oravecz, president, National Food Chain Safety Office, deputy CVO. Topic: The importance of cooperation in the field of food safety

You are what you eat? The risk of food consumption – Francesco Vernazza, EFSA

New risks from the doctor's point of view – Enikő Szabó, National Public Health and Medical Officer Service

New risks from the veterinarian's point of view – Prof. Tamás Tuboly, Szent István University

The impact of climate change on food safety – Prof. József Farkas

„I would rather be eaten by worms than eating them?” – Veronika Gál, National Food Chain Safety Office, Food Safety Risk Assessment Directorate

Discussion, questions

3. Session – On the frontiers – young scientific sectors – young scientists

Moderator: Ákos Jozwiak, deputy director, National Food Chain Safety Office, System Management and Supervision Directorate (detailed agenda in progress)

4. Session – Illegal – legal: control of food safety

14:00 – 14:05 Opening of the session – Zoltán Gombos, Ministry of Rural Development, Department of Food Chain Control

14:05 – 14:25 controls, new methods in the meat industry - Ferenc Helik, director, National Food Chain Safety Office, Special Affairs Directorate

14:25 – 14:45 National Tax and Customs Administration's experiences on control of food safety – Gábor Horváth, deputy head of department, National Tax and Customs Administration, Central Office

14:45 – 15:00 Misuses of pesticides – Csaba Szűcs, National Food Chain Safety Office, Special affairs Directorate

15:00 – 16:00 Round-table